GAME NOTES

HCAC FINAL FOUR

Defiance advanced to the 2013 HCAC Final Four via an 11-7 regular season record in league play and an 85-66 home win over Franklin in Tuesday's HCAC Semifinal. The Jackets will be aiming for their 27th conference championship in program history and their second trip to the NCAA Division III National Tournament in the past four seasons.

SCOUTING DEFIANCE

Defiance boasts a deep offensive attack, with six players averaging between 18.6 and 8.0 points per outing. Logan Wolfrum leads the way with 18.6, while Ryan Hicks (12.7) and Bernard Edwards (10.2) have also averaged double figures. The Jackets also have Drew Frizell (8.9), Travis Schomaeker (8.0) and Mason Roth (8.0) with the ability to make significant contributions in the scoring column on any given night.

MEET THE DC COACH

Kyle Brumett is in the midst of his fifth year as the head coach at Defiance and his seventh year as a collegiate head coach. Brumett owns an 83-50 mark with the Yellow Jackets and has 116 victories on the sidelines. Prior to joining DC, Brumett spent two years as the head coach at Lakeland. Brumett's coaching career also includes previous stints as an assistant coach at DePauw, Southern Indiana and Hanover.

BRUMETT IN THE POSTSEASON

DC head coach Kyle Brumett is making his sixth conference tournament appearance in seven years. During that time, Brumett's teams are 9-3 overall with two titles

DC IN THE HCAC TOURNAMENT

Defiance is 14-9 all-time in the HCAC Tournament with nine trips to the semifinals, five showings in the championship game and two tourney titles that came in 2001 and 2010 as a three seed. DC is 9-3 in its first game of the tourney, 7-3 in the quarterfinals, 5-3 in the semifinals and 2-3 in the championship game.

DC AGAINST THE HCAC FINAL FOUR FIELD

DC went 1-5 against Rose-Hulman, Hanover and Transylvania this season, despite shooting better from the field, three-point line and free throw line than the collective opposition in those six games. The difference can be found in the turnovers, where DC was minus-2.2 miscues per game, resulting in a minus-3.2 point differential per contest.

WILL HISTORY REPEAT ITSELF...AGAIN?

Defiance owns HCAC Tournament Championships from 2001 and 2010. Both of those tournament title runs started with a DC win against Franklin in the quarterfinal round. The Jackets punched their ticket to the HCAC Final Four this season with an 85-66 win over Franklin on Tuesday at the Karl H. Weaner Community Center.

DC AS A FOUR-SEED IN THE HCAC TOURNAMENT

DC is 4-3 as a four seed in the HCAC Tournament, but has never won more than one game in the tournament as the No. 4 seeded team.

DC VS ROSE-HULMAN

DC fell 63-52 at Rose-Hulman and 63-62 in the Hive to the top-seeded Engineers. Rose-Hulman shot 48.9 percent from the floor in those two games, paced by 18.5 points per outing from Julian Strickland.

DC VS ROSE-HULMAN IN THE HCAC TOURNAMENT

RYAN HICKS
RANKS THIRD IN DC HISTORY WITH 0.89 BLOCKS PER GAME

DC VS HANOVER

The Jackets and Panthers split the regular season series, with each team winning by double-digits on its home court. DC controlled most of the statistical categories in the season series and was led by 38.0 points per outing from Logan Wolfrum and Ryan Hicks.

DC VS HANOVER IN THE HCAC TOURNAMENT

DC has hooked up with Hanover six times in the HCAC Tournament, splitting those meetings. Defiance won the most recent clash, 72-59, in the HCAC Semifinals of DC's HCAC Tournament Title run in 2010.

DC VS TRANSYLVANIA

Defiance fell 75-68 at TU and 66-59 at home to the Pioneers this season. The Jackets shots just 40.2 percent in those games and were beaten on the glass by 8.5 boards per contest. Transy's big-three of Ethan Spurlin, Brandon Rash and Barrett Meyer combined for 50.5 points a night in those games.

DC VS TRANSYLVANIA IN THE HCAC TOURNEY

DC is 0-2 against the Pioneers in HCAC Tournament action, with the most recent setback coming via a 77-64 defeat in the 2007 title game.

DC'S LAST TIME OUT

Ryan Hicks notched a new career-high with 27 points on 11-of-13 shooting, to help Defiance get past Franklin, 85-66, in the HCAC Tournament Quarterfinals on Tuesday. Hicks led five Yellow Jackets in double figures, as DC scored 48 points in the second half to put the game away in front of its home crowd.

DC IN THE HCAC RANKINGS

On the defensive side of the ball, Defiance has made great strides since midway through the 2011-2012 season and now ranks first in the HCAC by holding teams to a 29.9-percent clip from beyond the arc and by blocking 3.5 shots per outing. DC rates second in the league by holding teams to just 42.6-percent shooting from the field and by pulling down 24.4 defensive rebounds per outing.

DC IN THE HCAC RANKINGS - PART TWO

The Jackets also rank favorably in several offensive categories, leading the pack by shooting 75.9 percent from the free throw line, while ranking second in the HCAC in field goal percentage (47.5), three-point percentage (37.8) and points per game (71.2).

HCAC PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR RESUME

Logan Wolfrum has made quite a case as a frontrunner for HCAC Player-of-the-Year honors. The senior is first in the league in scoring (18.6), second in assists (3.5) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.4), third in three-point percentage (43.3), fourth in defensive rebounds (4.8), fifth in minutes (31.9), sixth in three-pointers made per game (2.0) and free throw percentage (82.2) and 10th in total rebounds (5.7) per outing. Wolfrum is the only player in the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference to rank among the top-10 in each of

PUTTING HIS STAMP ON DC HISTORY

DC's All-American candidate, Logan Wolfrum, is making his mark all throughout the program's record books. Here is where Wolfrum currently ranks in DC's all-time history, as well as in the program's D-III era that dates back to the start of the 1991-1992 season.

THE 500-100-100 CLUB

DC's Logan Wolfrum is 17 points and eight assists shy of reaching 500 points, 100 rebounds and 100 assists in a single season. That has only happened one time in Defiance's NCAA Division III era, as Wolfrum accomplished that feat during his sophomore season in 2010-2011.

EYEING THE 1,800-POINT CLUB

Logan Wolfrum is also only 10 points shy of reaching 1,800 for his career. That number has only been reached by one other player in DC history, as Dennis Bostleman (1984-1988) closed his career with 2,404 points.

MR. FEBRUARY

DC head coach Kyle Brumett touts a 26-9 all-time record with the Jackets in February for his highest winning percentage of any month on the calendar.

BRUMETT'S MAGIC NUMBERS

DC's fifth-year head coach, Kyle Brumett, boasts a .624 winning percentage on the bench for the Jackets. That mark has been bolstered by a 50-14 clip at home, a 35-5 record when reaching the 80-point barrier and a 65-15 rate when taking his squad to the half with a lead. On the defensive side of the court, Brumett and the Jackets are 58-10 when holding the opposition under 70 points, 31-5 when their opponents shoot below 40 percent and 57-20 when winning the battle on the glass.

PLAYING THE NUMBERS GAME

DC has several players closing in on career milestones entering play this weekend ... Logan Wolfrum needs 10 points for 1,800, 10 assists for 400 and two three-point field goals for 200

SWARMING THE 'HIVE'

The Jackets have thrived inside the Weaner Center the past five seasons, posting a 50-14 mark. The strong play has been fueled further by great crowd support, as DC has led the HCAC in each of the last seven seasons in attendance and has averaged nearly 800 fans per night during that span.

HOME COOKING

Defiance College has continued its home dominance during the 2012-2013 campaign with an 11-3 mark inside the Hive. The Jackets sport a plus-13.0 point differential in those 14 contests thanks to 40.7 points per night from Logan Wolfrum, Ryan Hicks and Bernard Edwards.

SECOND-HALF SHARP SHOOTERS

DC has been shooting the lights out after the half this season. In 26 games, the Jackets are shooting 48.8 percent from the field and 40.4 percent from beyond the arc during the second half. Those numbers are well above Defiance's first-half clips of 46.3 percent from the field and 35.5 percent from deep.

D-D-D DEFIANCE

Since the midway mark of the 2011-2012 campaign, DC has been locking teams down on the defensive side of the ball. In 38 games since January 14, 2012, the Jackets have held foes to fewer than 70 points 28 times, going 23-5 in those outings.

SHOWCASING THEIR SPURTABILITY

In each of its 16 victories this season, Defiance College has used an extended stretch of dominance against the opposition to overcome a deficit, or to put the game out of reach.

CROSSING THE LINE

Getting to the free throw line is typically a key to success for a player and his team. That has not been the case this year for Logan Wolfrum, as the Yellow Jackets are just 2-4 in games when the senior guard attempts 10-or-more free throws. During his career, Defiance has won only eight-of-17 contests during which Wolfrum has went to the line at least 10 times.

LUCKY CHARM

Freshman D.J. Bonds has worked his way into the rotation and has given the Jackets a lift off the bench. Defiance is 12-3 this season when Bonds gets into the game.

PUT IT UP BIG FELLA!

OTHER STATS TO KEEP ON EYE ON

During the 2012-2013 season, DC is ... 13-6 when Drew Frizell knocks down at least one triple ... 9-4 when Travis Schomaeker dishes out two-or-more assists ... 15-6 when Logan Wolfrum turns the ball over three times or fewer.

HE'S A SCORING MACHINE

Logan Wolfrum has reached double figures in scoring in 87 of his 106 games with the Yellow Jackets, netting 20-or-more points 36 times and leading the squad in scoring 51 times.

HE'S HEATING UP!

After opening the year by shooting just 28.0 percent from three-point range over DC's first five games, Logan Wolfrum has found his range. Over his last 21 outings, Wolfrum has connected on 45-of-95 shots from beyond the arc for a blistering, 47.4-percent, clip.

HICKS BREAKING OUT

One year after averaging 5.2 points and 2.6 rebounds per game with zero double-doubles and only four double-digit scoring outputs, junior Ryan Hicks has busted out in 2012-2013 with 12.7 points and 5.8 boards a night. The Port Clinton, Ohio, native has reached double figures in 18-of-26 outings and leads DC with three double-doubles.

MORE ON HICKS

Ryan Hicks enters the weekend with 30 blocks this season, putting him fifth at Defiance for the best single-season total in program history.

THE LITTLE GIANT

Despite his small stature, Mason Roth played large against HCAC foes this year. Roth shot 52.5 percent from the field and 63.6 percent from inside the arc in league outings this season.

BACK IN ACTION

In the 15 games since returning from injury, Bernard Edwards has averaged 23.5 minutes, 10.5 points, 3.8 rebounds, 0.9 blocks and 0.6 steals per night.

IF THE SCHOMAEKER FITS

Travis Schomaeker cracked the starting lineup 21 games ago and has seen a dramatic increase in production. Since being inserted into the starting five, the sophomore guard has averaged 8.6 points per game compared to his career average of 4.4 during his previous 31 outings.

YOUTH IS SERVED

With only three players on an 18-man roster having more than one year of collegiate experience, Defiance College ranks as the second-youngest squad in the HCAC. The only team younger than DC is Manchester, with just one player above sophomore status.

DC DOUBLE-DOUBLES

Defiance College has recorded seven double-double performances in 2012-2013, with Ryan Hicks and Logan Wolfrum having three and Bernard Edwards posting one. Hicks and Wolfrum now lead all active Yellow Jackets with five double-double performances, while Edwards has one.

WOLFRUM SETS DC'S D-III SCORING MARK

Logan Wolfrum became DC's all-time leading scorer at the NCAA Division III level on Saturday, February 2, with an 18-point effort in DC's 77-63 win at MSJ. Wolfrum's free throws with 5:14 left in the game pushed the senior to 1,705 career points and past Chad Kahle (1996-2000) on the all-time scoring chart. Wolfrum now ranks second in DC history with 1,721 points, trailing only Dennis Bostleman's (1984-1988) top mark of 2,404 points.

WOLFRUM HONORED BY HCAC AND D3HOOPS

Logan Wolfrum was honored by D3hoops.com and the HCAC for the week of January 28 through February 3, after averaging 29.0 points on 72.4-percent shooting and setting DC's Div.-III scoring mark in wins at Manchester and MSJ.

PURPLE AND GOLD ALL-TOURNEY TEAM

Logan Wolfrum and Ryan Hicks were each named to the Purple and Gold All-Tournament Team on December 30, while Drew Frizell claimed the Gerry Boomer Sportsmanship Award. The trio led DC by, combining for 46.5 points and 17.0 rebounds per night.

WOLFRUM NETS HCAC WEEKLY HONOR

Logan Wolfrum earned his eighth HCAC Player-of-the-Week award on December 10, after averaging 23.5 points and 10.5 rebounds against Anderson and Hanover. Wolfrum shot 48.5 percent from the floor and 41.7 percent from beyond the arc on the week.

WOLFRUM NAMED TO ALL-TOURNEY TEAM

Logan Wolfrum was named to an All-Tourney Team for the seventh time in his outstanding career, this time taking home Marietta Tip-Off All-Tournament honors by averaging 22.0 points, 6.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game at the event. Wolfrum highlighted the tourney with a 34-point, 10-rebound, five-assist showing against Frostburg State on November 17.

JACKETS MAKING A DIFFERENCE OFF THE COURT

2012 marked the fifth-straight year for the DC men's basketball program to attend the Special Olympics State Bowling Tournament in Columbus, Ohio, where they encouraged the athletes during the competition and assisted with running the event as volunteers.

"Volunteering for the Special Olympics has been a great experience the past four years," said senior Logan Wolfrum. "As a basketball team, we look forward to helping athletes succeed during the event. It is great to see the impact that our team can have on these individuals by volunteering our time to help such a great cause."

Kyle Brumett is in his fifth season as the head coach for the men's basketball program at DC, after taking over the post on May 19, 2008.

Brumett's tenure has been rich with accomplishments for the program that has now gone seven-straight seasons without suffering a losing record. Brumett boasts an 83-50 overall record with the Yellow Jackets and his .624 winning percentage at Defiance marks the third-highest career winning percentage of any coach in program history with at least 50 victories. His DC squads have been especially tough to beat on the home planks, where Defiance is 50-14 inside the Karl H. Weaner Community Center during the Brumett era.

In 2009-2010 Brumett guided DC to one of the finest seasons in school history, as its 23-6 clip gave Defiance its best single-season record and highest win total of the program's NCAA Division III era. The Jackets got off to their best start since 1973 and rolled to the program's 1,300th victory in school history, 15th 20-win season, 26th conference championship, fourth NCAA Tournament appearance and 34th postseason berth.

The conference title came via a thrilling, 70-65, victory against the top-seeded Anderson Ravens in the championship game of the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference Tournament. The win capped an eight-game win streak that sent the Jackets into the NCAA Tournament, where they fell, 75-71, against No. 8 UW-Whitewater in the opening round.

Brumett has already coached 12 Yellow Jackets to All-HCAC honors in his four years, and saw Nick Sales named as the HCAC Player of the Year and an Honorable Mention All-American following the 2009-2010 campaign. Brumett also helped one of his athletes be named all-region in each of his first three seasons at Defiance, as Anthony Pettaway accomplished the feat in 2009, with Sales doing so in 2010 and Logan Wolfrum following in 2011.

Brumett came to Defiance after leading his Lakeland College squad to a 33-22 record and a 2008 Northern Athletics Conference Tournament Championship during his two-year stint with the Muskies.

Brumett graduated from Hanover with a degree in physical education in 1998, before earning a master's degree in recreation and sport management from Indiana State University in 2004.

He and his wife, Steffanie, have a five-year old son, Leon Maxwell, a two-year old son, Marcus David and a newborn son, Monte Cole.

Defiance's 2012-2013 Game Capsules

GAME 1 - NOVEMBER 16
DEFIANCE 55, #22 OHIO WESLEYAN 69

MARIETTA, Ohio – The 2012-2013 campaign got off to a bumpy start for the Defiance College men's basketball squad, as the Yellow Jackets fell behind early against No. 22 Ohio Wesleyan at the Marietta Tournament and suffered a 69-55 setback.

The Battling Bishops returned 10 of their top 11 performers from the 2011-2012 squad that won 20 games, en route to earning a spot in the NCAA Tournament. The experienced OWU lineup withstood an early charge from the youthful Yellow Jackets, before taking control of the contest.

Defiance took a 10-9 lead with 12:05 left in the first half, before Ohio Wesleyan scored 10-straight points and poured in 20 of the game's next 22 points to break open a 29-12 edge. OWU stayed in control from there, cruising to a 40-20 lead at the intermission.

The Jackets cut the gap to 13 points out of the break, before the Bishops pushed the spread back over the 20-point barrier. Defiance would get back to within 59-45 with 6:32 to go but would never mount a serious charge, eventually falling 69-55.

WOLFRUM NETS 34 IN LAST-SECOND LOSS TO BOBCATS

MARIETTA, Ohio – Logan Wolfrum's sixth 30-point outburst of his career was not enough, as the Defiance College men lost a back-and-forth affair to Frostburg State at the horn to close the 42nd-Annual Marietta Shrine Tournament in heart-breaking fashion and with a disappointing 0-2 clip.

Defiance maintained a 38-34 edge on the glass over Frostburg State but the Bobcats pulled down 14 offensive caroms and converted them into 13 second-chance points.

Frostburg State also capitalized on 15 turnovers from DC, netting 16 points off the costly Yellow Jacket miscues. The mistakes helped to squander a 39-32 halftime lead for Defiance, as 10 second-half turnovers turned into a decisive, 12-0, gap in points off of turnovers for the Bobcats.

DC's seven-point spread at the break matched the largest lead of the afternoon for either side and was equaled early in the second stanza by a 43-36 lead for the Purple and Gold at the 16:40 mark.

It would not hold however, as Frostburg State used a 16-8 rally to take its first lead since holding a 3-2 edge in the opening moments. The 52-51 Bobcat lead eventually opened up to 65-61 with 5:26 left in the contest.

A fast-break flush from Hicks, followed by a three-point play from Wolfum momentarily swung the lead back to the Jackets but another FSU spurt put Defiance in a 71-66 hole with 47 ticks left on the clock.

The Jackets charged back again, this time using back-to-back triples from Schomaeker and Wolfrum to knot the score at 72-72 with eight seconds to play, but Frostburg State made its last chance count by sinking a jumper at the horn for the 74-72 victory.

DEFIANCE 69, OHIO NORTHERN 64

DC MEN CLOSE OUT OHIO NORTHERN FOR FIRST VICTORY

ADA, Ohio – Defiance overcame a 17-point second-half deficit and outscored Ohio Northern by a 27-5 clip over the final 9:42 of action to steal a 69-64 road victory over the Polar Bears.

The Jackets trailed 59-42 with just under 10 minutes left in the game, but nailed four-of-seven triples down the stretch and connected on seven-of-11 shots overall to fuel the decisive rally. Logan Wolfrum spurred the run by pouring in nine points and assisting on three other DC buckets in that stretch.

A three-point make from Drew Frizell sparked the Yellow Jacket charge and a pair of steals from Ryan Hicks allowed Defiance to claw to within 11 points, after trips to the charity stripe from Hicks and Jordan Fair were followed by a three-point play from Mason Roth.

ONU pushed the spread back to 13 points at 63-50 with 7:00 minutes to play, but Wolfrum took the game over and fueled a 15-0 rally to turn the game in Defiance's favor.

Wolfrum started the stretch with a pair of free throws, before assisting a trey from Roth, picking up a steal and finding Frizell for another long-range jumper that brought the Jackets within five points. Wolfrum then followed a layup with a triple of his own to bring Defiance even at 65 all with 2:37 showing on the clock.

Hicks continued the run with a pair of free throws that gave DC its first lead since the 5:36 mark of the opening stanza and pushed the spread to 67-64 on a jumper in the paint nearly one minute later.

That would be all the Jackets would need, as Wolfrum added two more free throws to cap the 19-1 spurt over the final seven minutes and seal the 69-64 victory for Defiance.

JACKETS ROLL ALMA ON CAREER-NIGHTS FROM HICKS, FRIZELL, WOOLEY

DEFIANCE, Ohio – The Defiance College men's basketball team extended its home winning streak in non-conference action to 15-straight and improved to 5-0 in home openers under head coach Kyle Brumett with a 76-60 victory against Alma inside the Karl H. Weaner Community Center.

The Jackets used the long ball to fuel the attack all night long, connecting on 10-of-24 tries from three-point territory to keep the Scots at bay.

Back-to-back triples from Drew Frizell and Travis Schomaeker opened up an early 21-14 lead for Defiance and it would not look back, despite Alma closing the half on a 10-2 spurt to draw to within 39-37.

DC wasted no time putting the game away in the second stanza, using a 15-0 rally out of the intermission to break open a 54-37 lead at the 14:00 mark. Another trey from Frizell capped the eventual 20-2 run to open the half and pushed the Defiance lead to 59-39.

The Jackets cruised from there, never allowing Alma any closer than 13 points the rest of the evening and completing the 76-60 non-conference win.

GAME 5 - DECEMBER 1
DEFIANCE 52, ROSE-HULMAN 63

WOLFRUM JOINS 1,400-POINT CLUB IN ROAD DEFEAT

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. – Defiance College senior guard, Logan Wolfrum, became the 16th player in program history and the first since Anthony Pettaway in 2009 to eclipse the 1,400-point marker but Wolfrum's 16-point showing was not enough in a 63-52 loss at Rose-Hulman.

The Yellow Jackets headed to R-H looking to avenge a season-ending loss to the Engineers in the quarterfinals of last season's Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference Tournament and traded shots with the home squad for much of the opening stanza.

Rose-Hulman used crisp ball movement to assist on seven of its first eight hoops, while Defiance relied on 10-of-18 shooting from the floor to keep pace in a 25-25 stalemate through the opening 15 minutes of action.

The Engineers then sank their next three attempts from the field and added a pair of free throws to open up the first lead of over three points for either side. The 9-2 stretch over the final 3:34 of the period sent Rose-Hulman to the break with a 34-27 cushion.

The Rose-Hulman lead grew to 36-27 to open the second half, as the Engineers extended their decisive spurt to 11-2 from the end of the opening stanza.

The Jackets would flirt with finding their range from long distance, as triples from Mason Roth and Wolfrum twice brought DC back to within only four points, but those would be the only two makes from three-point range for Defiance the rest of the way.

Despite the poor shooting from long distance the Purple and Gold still continued to hang around, pulling to within five points with 11:30 and 10:01 left to play in the contest. Without the shots falling from downtown however, DC could get no closer and ultimately fell by the 63-52 margin.

JACKETS FALL AT AU DESPITE HUGE SECOND HALF FROM WOLFRUM

ANDERSON, Ind. – Logan Wolfrum scored 28 of his game-high 32 points in the second half and added seven rebounds and six assists in the final stanza but it was not enough, as Defiance suffered its fifth-straight regular season road loss at Anderson via an 85-81 defeat.

DC's recent struggles during the regular season inside the O.C. Lewis Gymnasium carried over into the start of the game, as the Ravens blitzed Defiance early for a 25-9 lead midway through the opening period of action.

The Jackets managed to withstand the early surge and trimmed the 16-point deficit to seven at the intermission, before a pair of triples from Wolfrum drew the Purple and Gold to within a single possession at 34-31.

Anderson pushed back by scoring the game's next six points but back-to-back buckets from Ryan Hicks and five more points from Wolfrum sliced the Raven lead to 42-40. The Jackets then drew even at 45-45 with 10:52 to play on a deuce and a trey from Drew Frizell.

DC would finally grab the lead at the 9:01 mark on a three-point play from Hicks, but the 50-49 Yellow Jacket edge would evaporate quickly thanks to an ensuing 17-4 spurt from Anderson over the next 3:21 of action.

The AU lead would remain in double figures until as late as the 00:37 mark of the contest, when Wolfrum fueled one final rally from the Jackets.

This time, Wolfrum poured in eight-straight points for DC to cut the margin to four with 14 seconds to play, before another three-point play by Hicks brought Defiance within three with three ticks on the clock.

Time would expire on the desperate final charge from Defiance however, as AU sank a free throw to finish off the 85-81 contest.

HANOVER 58, DEFIANCE 75

DEFIANCE MEN NEVER TRAIL IN HCAC ROUT OF HANOVER

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Travis Schomaeker opened the scoring with a three-point shot and the Defiance College men's basketball team never trailed in a convincing, 75-58, victory against Hanover inside the Karl H. Weaner Community Center.

The Jackets hawked the Hanover shooters all afternoon, holding the visitors 24 points below their season average and limiting HC to three-of-27 shooting from three-point territory. The Panthers missed on all 12 of their long-range attempts in the opening stanza, as Defiance took control early and never looked back.

A 14-5 charge from DC broke open a 13-13 tie and lifted the Jackets to a nine-point cushion, before a 14-2 spurt just over one minute later broke the game open with a 41-24 lead for the Purple and Gold.

Hanover closed the half with a bucket to trim the margin to 41-26 and eventually knocked in its first three-point shot of the contest to draw within 12 points at the 12:41 mark of the final period.

That would be as close as things would get, as Drew Frizell buried back-to-back triples of his own to push the spread back to 18 at 54-36 with 11:34 left in the contest. DC cruised from there, pushing the lead to as many as 20 in the closing minutes, before settling on the 75-58 victory.

HICKS NETS CAREER-HIGH WITH 22 IN 72-64 WIN OVER HORNETS

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Defiance College extended its home winning streak in non-conference contests to 16-straight victories and moved to 13-0 all-time against Kalamazoo with a 72-64 win. The Jackets moved to 42-11 on the home planks under Kyle Brumett and a perfect 3-0 this season.

Despite several strong individual showings from DC, neither side could get on track in the opening stanza. Defiance and Kalamazoo both shot below 38.0 percent in the first half and the Jackets had to use a 12-5 spurt down the stretch to head to the break with a 30-26 lead.

DC picked up the tempo out of the intermission, using back-to-back buckets in transition to open up a 43-32 advantage at the 15:21 mark, as the more aggressive offense led to better looks and a 53.6-percent clip from the floor over the final 20 minutes.

Kalamazoo still managed a pair of challenges however, cutting the lead down to three points on two occasions. The Jackets turned to the long ball to stave off both spurts, as sharp-shooting sophomores Schomaeker and Drew Frizell buried critical three-point shots to double the lead to six each time and help keep the Hornets at bay in the 72-64 win.

FRANKLIN 60, DEFIANCE 64

JACKETS RALLY PAST FRANKLIN FOR THIRD-STRAIGHT VICTORY

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Defiance overcame a sluggish start inside the Weaner Center, using a 19-0 rally to erase a 14-point deficit against Franklin and pulling out a 64-60 victory. The win was DC's sixth-straight home triumph against the Grizzlies.

FC opened the game on fire, sinking five of its first eight attempts from beyond the arc to build a 23-11 advantage. The gap spread to the 14-point margin at 30-16 with 5:23 to play in the opening stanza, before DC began to fight back.

The game-changing rally was fueled on the defensive end, as Defiance held Franklin scoreless over the remainder of the half and used a 12-0 spurt to draw within 30-28 at the break.

Defiance continued the stretch into the second stanza, scoring the first seven points out of the intermission to grab a 35-30 lead. The 19-0 run spanned 8:14 of action from the 5:23 mark of the first half to the 17:09 mark of the second and flipped a 14-point Franklin cushion into a five-point edge for the Jackets.

Franklin finally managed to stop the onslaught by dialing it back up from long distance for a pair of treys that sliced the Defiance lead to three and later used its ninth make from beyond the arc to close to within 57-56 with 2:39 showing on the clock.

The DC lead would evaporate at the 1:01 mark on a Howard Bailey jumper, and the two sides traded buckets on the ensuing possessions to stay gridlocked at 60-60 with 23 ticks left in the contest.

Logan Wolfrum took care of the rest by driving the lane, spinning and kissing a jumper off the glass and in with 1.5 seconds to go to give Defiance the 62-60 lead. The Jackets would seal the victory moments later, as Drew Frizell knocked down a pair of free throws to complete the 64-60 win.

JACKETS BLITZ FINLANDIA FOR BERTH IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DEFIANCE, Ohio – The Defiance College men's basketball team had little trouble advancing into the Purple and Gold Tournament Championship game with an 85-57 thrashing of Finlandia inside the Karl H. Weaner Community Center.

The Jackets improved to 59-16 all-time in the tournament with the lopsided victory and upped their season record inside the Hive to 5-0, while extending their home winning streak in non-conference games to 17-straight wins.

Defiance used an 18-0 stretch to put the game away early, extending a 9-7 edge at the 14:15 mark of the opening stanza into a commanding 27-7 lead at the 8:43 mark. Drew Frizell buried a trio of three-point daggers during the spurt to help DC take firm control of the action.

The lead would continue to grow from there, swelling to as high as 35-9 with 6:29 remaining in the half, before settling at 44-20 in favor of the Purple and Gold by the intermission.

#12 ADRIAN 70, DEFIANCE 69 (OT)

WOLFRUM JOINS 1,500-POINT CLUB IN OT LOSS TO NO. 12 ADRIAN

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Defiance hooked up with No. 12 Adrian for a thrilling championship game that featured 12 ties and 14 lead changes, before the visiting Bulldogs took the 70-69 win in overtime.

The last second bucket capped a wild final 37 seconds of the overtime period, after a steal from Logan Wolfrum was followed by a pair of free throws from Mason Roth to bring Defiance within one point. Drew Frizell then stole the ensuing in-bounds pass and sank a jumper to put DC in front by a 67-66 margin with 32 seconds left on the clock.

After Adrian countered with 21 ticks remaining on a hoop from Brandon Romain, Wolfrum put the Jackets back on top by posting up and banking in his 23rd and 24th points of the contest to reclaim a 69-68 advantage with 10 seconds to play.

The Bulldogs would turn to Romain once again, but his attempt was swatted out of bounds by Ryan Hicks with 2.7 showing on the clock. That set the stage for the game-winner, as AC's Cody Barnes inbounded the ball to a streaking Romain, who elevated over a pair of Yellow Jackets in the key and knocked down the decisive hoop with 1.3 ticks left in the contest.

DC saw its eight-game winning streak in the Purple and Gold Tournament and its nine-game winning streak inside the Hive come to an end with its first loss in four home games against a top-25 program during the Brumett era.

Wolfrum capped his historic night by becoming the ninth player overall and the fourth in DC's NCAA Division III era to reach 1,500 points on his first hoop of the contest at the 14:07 mark of the first period.

Wolfrum and Hicks were each named to the Purple and Gold All-Tournament Team, joining Mount Union's Nate Jacubec and Adrian's Sean Gallant on the list. Adrian's Eric Lewis claimed the tournament's Most Valuable Player honor, while Frizell was awarded the Gerry Boomer Sportsmanship Award.

STRONG SECOND HALF LIFTS DEFIANCE PAST BLUFFTON

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Defiance held Bluffton without a point for a stretch of over nine minutes in the second half to pull away for a 62-46 win over the Beavers inside the Karl H. Weaner Community Center. The win moved DC to 126-63 all-time against Bluffton.

The scoreless drought by the Beavers proved to be the decisive stretch in the contest, as neither side opened up a lead of over five points through the opening 20 minutes of action. BU's 23-18 lead was quickly sliced to a single point on a pair of hoops from Ryan Hicks, with the Jackets closing the opening stanza on a 10-5 run to head to the lockers knotted at 28-28.

Defiance then scored the first six points of the second half and eventually raced to a 40-31 lead by the 16:13 mark of the final period, after a pair of free throws from Bernard Edwards opened up the largest lead of the night to that point.

A three pointer from Bluffton just 10 seconds later narrowed the margin to six points at 40-34, but the Yellow Jackets would not allow another point from the Beavers until only 6:52 was left in the contest.

During the stretch of 9:11, DC outscored the Beavers by a margin of 11-0 to break open a 51-34 gap. Edwards, Logan Wolfrum and Mason Roth accounted for all 11 points during the spurt, while Bluffton went zero-for-13 from the floor and missed all five free throw attempts.

Four-straight points from the Beavers finally ended the DC run, but the Jackets immediately countered with a three from Travis Schomaeker and a pair of free throws from D.J. Bonds to push the spread to a game-high of 18 points at 56-38 with 4:41 showing on the clock.

The game's outcome would never be in doubt from that point on, as Defiance finished off the 62-46 victory to extend its home winning streak against conference foes to seven-straight victories.

GAME 13 - JANUARY 5
DEFIANCE 68, TRANSYLVANIA 75

JACKETS STRUGGLE AGAINST TRANSYLVANIA DUO IN HCAC ROAD LOSS

LEXINGTON, Ky. – DC had no answer for the top post tandem in the HCAC, as Transylvania's duo of Ethan Spurlin and Brandon Rash combined for 54 points and 24 rebounds in a 75-68 victory over the Yellow Jackets.

Spurlin and Rash took control of the action early, netting the first seven points of the game and helping the Pioneers maintain a 17-10 advantage until three-point makes from Travis Schomaeker and Drew Frizell cut the TU lead to 19-17.

A pair of Logan Wolfrum free throws again brought Defiance to within a pair at 21-19 with 10:06 to go in the opening stanza but the Pioneers would continue to lean on Spurlin and Rash to open up a 35-25 cushion and eventually take a 42-31 lead to the break.

Spurlin and Rash dominated the opening 20 minutes, with 29 points and 12 rebounds, while the rest of the Pioneers managed only 13 points and 15 boards.

Defiance tried to counter the attack by sinking five triples in 10 attempts but the interior struggles were too much, as the Jackets were beaten on the glass by a 22-10 margin and connected on only five-of-15 attempts from inside the three-point line.

It would be more of the same to start the second half, with Spurlin scoring the first five points out of the intermission. A Rash jumper would then open up a 52-35 lead for TU with 16:34 to play and the Pioneers would hold a 20-point lead as late as the 11:12 mark.

The Jackets dug in and began to battle back over the final 10 minutes however, closing the game on a 26-13 run. Mason Roth fueled the late surge with seven points and three assists during the stretch and brought DC to within five points on a stick back off of his own missed free throw with 1:49 left in the contest.

After another hoop from Rash pushed the gap back to seven points, Hosie Smith knocked down a pair of free throws to make it a five-point game once again. The Jackets could not get any closer however, as Transylvania held on for the 75-68 win.

DC MEN RIDE LONG-RANGE ATTACK TO WIN OVER SPARTANS

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Defiance College knocked down a season-high 11 makes from behind the three-point line and led by double figures over the final 18:28 of the contest in a 72-54 victory against Manchester.

The win extended DC's home winning streak against Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference foes to eight-straight contests and moved the Yellow Jackets to within a single game of second place in the HCAC standings.

Defiance opened the game ice cold, missing 12 of its first 15 attempts from the field thanks to a one-of-nine start from three-point territory. The poor shooting allowed Manchester to build a 12-7 lead by the 12:25 mark of the opening half.

The Jackets then turned their focus to the paint, attacking the rim and hitting nine of their next 10 shot attempts and storming back to claim a 27-16 lead. The run would later continue for DC, as six-consecutive points capped a 26-6 spurt and pushed the Yellow Jacket spread to 33-18 with 2:13 left to play in the first stanza.

A 33-24 lead at the half would quickly climb to a 20-point cushion for Defiance, as the Purple and Gold found the range from deep in the second stanza. Three-straight trifectas from Travis Schomaeker, Bernard Edwards and Logan Wolfrum opened up a 49-29 gap.

Schomaeker would then strike again to turn back the lone Manchester threat of the second half, connecting on his fourth trey of the stanza and sinking the ensuing free throw to give the Jackets a 62-47 lead with the four-point play.

DC would continue to hit from beyond the arc, eventually sinking eight-of-16 tries in the second half and rolling past the Spartans for the 72-54 triumph.

GAME 15 - JANUARY 12
MT. ST. JOSESPH 61, DEFIANCE 77

DEFIANCE USES BALANCED ATTACK TO DISPATCH MOUNT ST. JOSEPH

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Defiance College recorded its ninth straight home win against a HCAC opponent and never trailed in a 77-61 victory over Mount St. Joseph inside the Karl H. Weaner Community Center.

DC wasted little time taking control of the action, bolting to a 30-16 lead and maintaining the comfortable 14-point cushion at the half with a 40-26 margin.

The Jackets did not allow an offensive rebound to the Lions in the opening 20 minutes of play and stifled the MSJ shooters on the perimeter, while holding them to a one-of-10 performance in the first half.

A 10-2 spurt from the visitors out of the break trimmed the gap to six points but a three from Frizell helped stem the tide. DC would add another pair to push the lead back into double figures and was never threatened from that point on, cruising to the 77-61 win.

DEFIANCE 92, EARLHAM 66

JACKETS BLAST EARLHAM FOR FIRST ROAD HCAC VICTORY

RICHMOND, Ind. – The Defiance College men's basketball team scored its first road win of the year in conference action, topping Earlham by a 92-66 margin. The 26-point spread gave the Jackets their most lopsided road win of the Kyle Brumett era.

It took a few minutes for the Purple and Gold to take control of the action however, as Earlham won the tip and scored on its first possession. The Quakers would then take an 8-6 lead and draw even at 10-10, before a hoop from Bernard Edwards and consecutive baskets from Travis Schomaeker put DC up by a 16-10 count.

The Jackets would not look back, using back-to-back triples from Mason Roth and Drew Frizell to open up a 24-14 lead by the 9:47 mark and taking a 41-28 lead into the half.

It would be all Defiance in the final 20 minutes, with two more three-point daggers from Frizell pushing the lead over the 20-point barrier to stay with 11:42 remaining in the contest via a 66-42 cushion.

The lead would hover between 22 and 28 points the rest of the way, as DC rolled to the 92-66 triumph and its largest road victory since topping Transylvania by a 98-65 score on January 12, 2008.

GAME 17 - JANUARY 19
DEFIANCE 74, HANOVER 84

WOLFRUM ECLIPSES 1,600 CAREER POINTS IN LOSS AT HANOVER

HANOVER, Ind. – Defiance College's senior point guard, Logan Wolfrum, became the seventh player in program history to reach 1,600 points for a career and climbed into a tie for fifth place on DC's all-time scoring list with 22 points in an 84-74 loss at Hanover.

The milestone was tempered by the Jackets' struggles against the Hanover press defense however, as DC turned the ball over 14 times in the opening 20 minutes and connected on only one-of-six attempts from beyond the arc.

Despite the sloppy play, DC stayed within reach of the Panthers by sinking its first 13 tries from the free throw line and controlling the glass. Ryan Hicks and Mason Roth also helped the Jackets hang close by combining for 22 of the squad's first 30 points on seven-of-eight shooting from the field.

Hanover closed the opening half on a 10-4 stretch to finally distance itself from Defiance with a 43-34 halftime advantage, behind 20 points on nine-of-10 shooting from Brian Gunter.

The Panthers continued the run with seven of the first nine points to start the second period, extending their lead to a 50-36 gap before Defiance rode a hot spurt from Wolfrum to claw back into the game.

Wolfrum started the surge with a triple at the 13:11 mark to narrow the deficit to 57-50 and push him over the 1,600-point barrier for his career. Wolfrum did not slow there, following the historic hoop with another three-point make and assisting Hicks for a deuce to draw within 61-55.

Wolfrum then drained his third three-point shot to narrow the HC margin to 62-58 at the 11:31 mark and added two more baskets to make it 66-62 in favor of the Panthers with 8:24 to play.

HC countered the flurry from Wolfrum by turning back to Gunter for five-straight points to build its lead back to 73-66 with 6:15 showing on the clock and held on for the 84-74 win.

JACKETS NEVER TRAIL IN 85-61 WIN OVER ANDERSON

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Ryan Hicks opened the scoring with his first collegiate three-pointer and Defiance never looked back, as it won its 10th-straight Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference contest on the home planks with an 85-61 victory against Anderson.

The short-handed Ravens managed to hang around throughout the first 10 minutes, pulling to within a single point at the midway point before Defiance used a 23-1 rally to break the game wide open. Defiance sank nine-of-13 shots during the extended run, including three-of-four attempts from beyond the arc and rode the surge to a 44-29 lead at the break.

The onslaught continued in the second stanza, as back-to-back triples from Drew Frizell ignited another Yellow Jacket spurt. This time DC rattled off a 14-1 stretch behind four combined treys from Frizell and Travis Schomaeker to open up a 70-38 cushion and rolled to the 85-61 win.

TRANSYLVANIA 66, DEFIANCE 59

JACKETS FALL TO TRANSYLVANIA IN RARE HOME SETBACK

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Defiance College saw a 10-point halftime lead evaporate in a 66-59 loss to Transylvania, as the Pioneers snapped DC's 10-game home winning streak against Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference foes that dated back over a full calendar year.

The Jackets dominated the opening 20 minutes of action, stifling the Transy attack and taking a 29-19 lead into the break. TU's lone offense in the first half came on nine points from Barrett Meyer, while the rest of the squad connected on only two-of-18 attempts from the floor.

That would quickly change out of the intermission however, as Transylvania knocked down five of its first seven shots, including a trio of three-point attempts to roar back to within a single point at 33-32 by the 16:02 mark.

The charge would continue for Transy, as a three-point play from Parker Stansberry lifted the Pioneers in front for the first time all afternoon with a 39-37 lead. A free throw from Tate Cox would later cap the 28-10 spurt to start the half, resulting in a 48-39 Transylvania advantage with 8:50 to play in the contest.

Defiance bounced back, eventually reclaiming the lead after Logan Wolfrum found Drew Frizell and Travis Schomaeker on back-to-back triples for a 54-53 edge, but Meyer answered with another trifecta of his own and went on to score seven of the next 10 points to push TU back in front by a 63-54 margin.

This time the Jackets would have no counter, as Meyer ended with a game-high 24 points in the 66-59 victory for the Pioneers.

The loss marked only the ninth time in 63 games during the Kyle Brumett era at DC that the Jackets had lost a game in which they held their opponent below the 70-point barrier.

WOLFRUM NETS 40 TO CARRY JACKETS PAST MANCHESTER

N. MANCHESTER, Ind. – Logan Wolfrum went for 40 points to move into third place on DC's all-time scoring list and scored the game-winner with no time left on the clock to push the Jackets to a 78-77 win at Manchester.

The Jackets would need every single point from Wolfrum, as the senior guard took over the game in the final 9:30 to help DC overcome a 10-point deficit in the closing minutes. Wolfrum buried five three-point shots during that span and scored 19 of the final 21 points for Defiance, including each of the last 13 to help pull out the victory.

Wolfrum opened the closing flurry with a pair of long-distance daggers to cut Manchester's 67-57 lead at the 9:30 mark down to 67-63 but the Spartans rallied back to extend the lead to 10 once again with 6:22 left in the game.

A bucket from Hosie Smith stopped the quick MU spurt and it would be all Wolfrum from that point on, as another triple from the Ayersville High product brought Defiance within five and a three-point play trimmed the gap to 75-71 at the 3:07 mark.

Wolfrum kept coming with back-to-back trifectas on DC's next two possessions, with his fifth and final three-point make of the half giving Defiance a 77-75 lead with 1:45 to play and putting the Jackets on top for the first time since midway through the first half.

GAME 21 - FEBRUARY 2
DEFIANCE 77, MT. ST. JOSEPH 63

WOLFRUM BECOMES DC'S NCAA DIVISION-III SCORING LEADER IN WIN

CINCINNATI, Ohio – Logan Wolfrum became the all-time leading scorer for the DC men's basketball program during the school's NCAA Division III era and ended with 18 points in DC's 77-63 win at Mount St. Joseph.

Wolfrum started the game on fire, drilling four three-point shots in the opening minutes to push the Jackets to a 15-12 lead. The Defiance, Ohio, native would not strike again until the closing minutes of the game, using a layup at the 6:11 mark to join DC's exclusive 1,700-point club and scoring another hoop at the 5:48 mark to tie Chad Kahle (1996-2000) with 1,703 career points.

The record would slide to Wolfrum 34 seconds later, as the senior guard knocked down a pair of free throws with 5:14 left in the game to move to 1,705 points and claim the label as DC's most prolific scorer since the program joined the NCAA Division III ranks prior to the 1991-1992 season.

Defiance took control of the game early, using a 10-0 stretch to open up a 25-16 first-half lead, before heading to the break with a 41-31 cushion.

The Jackets then opened the second half on a 16-3 tear, holding the Lions to one field goal in the first nine minutes of the stanza and building a commanding, 57-34, lead. Ryan Hicks and Bernard Edwards fueled the decisive stretch by teaming for 14 of the Jackets' 16 points to open the half and DC coasted to the 77-63 win.

JACKETS ROLL EARLHAM TO CLINCH HCAC TOURNAMENT BID

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Defiance College never trailed against Earlham on, turning in a dominant defensive showing in a 64-39 triumph. The victory pushed the Jackets' regular season winning streak during the month of February to 10-straight games.

The 39 points scored by Earlham also marked the lowest point total allowed by Defiance during the Kyle Brumett era, and matched the lowest offensive output against DC since the Jackets also limited Rose-Hulman to 39 points in a 60-39 victory inside the Hive back on January 3, 2007.

The game was rarely in doubt, as Defiance blew open an early 9-6 lead with a 17-1 stretch that pushed the Purple and Gold to a 26-7 lead with 6:10 remaining in the opening stanza.

The lead would settle at 34-15 by the break, before swelling to as many as 30, at 59-29 with 6:10 left in the contest. Defiance was never threatened in the second half, maintaining a cushion of at least 25 points over the final eight minutes of action and cruising to the 64-39 victory.

GAME 23 - FEBRUARY 9
ROSE-HULMAN 63, DEFIANCE 62

JACKETS' UPSET BID FALLS SHORT AGAINST NO. 19 ROSE-HULMAN

DEFIANCE, Ohio – The Defiance College men's basketball program honored Logan Wolfrum and Marcus Dunlap as part of its Senior Day ceremony and then pushed No. 19 Rose-Hulman to the brink, before coming up one-point shy of the upset in the 63-62 defeat.

The Yellow Jackets rebounded from an early 8-3 deficit by turning to Ryan Hicks, Travis Schomaeker and Wolfrum to fuel a 13-0 spurt that flipped the lead to Defiance via a 16-8 advantage.

Defiance would maintain control of the lead throughout the remainder of the opening half, taking a 32-25 edge to the break and pushing the gap into double figures on a Mason Roth layup with 17:23 left in the final stanza.

The 38-28 DC lead would be trimmed quickly to three points by Rose-Hulman, before triples from Schomaeker and Drew Frizell extended the margin back to 44-37 and another trey from Schomaeker opened up a 47-39 cushion for the Jackets with 11 minutes to play in the contest.

DC would hold an eight-point spread until under the eight-minute mark, when R-H's senior reserve, Nate Gissentanner, erupted for seven of the next 11 points for the visitors. Gissentanner capped the surge with a three-point shot that lifted Rose-Hulman to a 56-55 lead with 5:23 showing on the clock. Gissentanner did not stop there however, answering a game-tying triple from Bernard Edwards with another long-ranged make that gave the Engineers a 63-60 lead.

Roth answered with a deuce in the paint to draw the Jackets within a single point with 1:53 showing on the clock, but neither side could put any further points on the board and Rose-Hulman escaped with the 63-62 victory.

DEFIANCE SUFFERS ROAD LOSS IN HCAC ACTION

BLUFFTON, Ohio – Defiance College struggled in its first-ever visit to Bluffton's new Sommer Center, trailing the entire game and ending with a 75-55 setback to the Beavers in the 190th meeting between the two programs.

The Jackets failed to secure the No. 4 seed in the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference Tournament with the loss, forcing DC to win at Franklin in the regular season finale in order to clinch a home game against the Grizzlies on in the HCAC Tournament Quarterfinals.

Defiance never got on track on either side of the ball in Wednesday's rivalry showdown with Bluffton, shooting only 37.0 percent and allowing BU to shoot 52.0 percent and finish nine points higher than its scoring average for the season.

JACKETS POST KEY ROAD WIN IN REGULAR SEASON FINALE

FRANKLIN, Ind. – Logan Wolfrum scored 23 of his game-high 27 points in the second half of his final regular season contest, as Defiance took a 72-63 win at Franklin to secure the opportunity to host a Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference Tournament Quarterfinal clash with the Grizzlies inside the Hive.

The Jackets led throughout much of the afternoon but needed a strong closing push from Wolfrum to turn back a second-half charge from Franklin, after FC had used a 14-2 surge to turn an eight-point deficit into a 47-43 lead with 8:55 left in the game.

Wolfrum immediately began chipping away at the largest lead of the day for the host squad and closed the contest with 20 points over the next 8:23 of game action to fuel a 26-12 rally for DC and push the Jackets back in front by a 69-59 margin with less than one minute left on the clock.

Defiance would finish off the key road victory, topping Franklin by a 72-63 margin to complete the regular season sweep of the Grizzlies and claim the No. 4 seed and an opening round home game in the HCAC Tournament.

DEFIANCE ADVANCES TO HCAC SEMIS BEHIND HICKS' CAREER-HIGH

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Ryan Hicks netted a career-high 27 points and Defiance put 48 points on the board in the final 20 minutes of its HCAC Tournament Quarterfinal clash with Franklin, as the Jackets won by an 85-66 count.

Defiance got out of the gates slowly, missing seven of its first nine shots from the field and all four of its three-point tries. Franklin countered by sinking seven-of-11 shots to open up an 18-8 lead.

The Grizzlies continued to keep the Jackets on their heels throughout much of the opening stanza, holding a 30-22 lead with 5:45 left in the half, before treys from Logan Wolfrum and Travis Schomaeker finally ignited the DC attack and narrowed the gap to 30-28.

The Jackets would draw even on six-straight points from Bernard Edwards, before Hicks sank the second three-point shot of his career on DC's final possession of the half to send Defiance to the break with a 37-34 advantage.

Franklin would open the second half hot once again, scoring on each of its first four touches to reclaim a 41-39 lead, but the Defiance offense kept pace and a three from Drew Frizell flipped the lead back to the Jackets at 42-41.

Defiance would never trail from that point on and outscored the Grizzlies by a 28-13 clip over the final 8:34 of the game to pull away.

Hicks did most of that damage, knocking down a jumper and a pair of free throws on consecutive trips to push Defiance to a 61-53 lead with 7:23 left and another Frizell triple opened up a double-digit lead for the Jackets at 64-53.

Hicks followed with another bucket to cap a 9-0 spurt, before another 8-1 stretch put the game out of reach at 74-57 in favor of DC by the 4:09 mark.

Defiance never let FC closer than 14 the rest of the way, rolling to the 19-point postseason victory over the visiting Grizzlies.
